Alma Amador

Administrative Assistant

“Every experience God gives us, every person He puts in our lives, is the perfect preparation for the future that only He can see.”

-Corrie ten Boom

Alma Amador was born in Nuevo Laredo Tamaulipas, Mexico, on the border of Laredo. She is 38, and has lived in San Antonio for 18 years. She has been married for ten years and has a 19-year-old daughter.

Alma is a non-traditional student who has overcome barriers such as language, financing her education, and is the first of her family to attend college. Graduating in Spring 2020 with an associate in administrative assistant, she plans to transfer to the University of Texas - San Antonio to pursue a bachelor's and master's degree in accounting.

Alma is an example and inspiration to her daughter and other women who dream of reaching their aspirations through higher education. She wants her family to see her hard work and feel pride, knowing the sacrifices have been worth it. She is grateful God gave her the blessing to continue her education.
