Political Science

“The time is always right to do the right thing. Sometimes it is better to lose and do the right thing than to win and do the wrong thing. I believe that in life, you have to give things your best shot, do your best. You have to focus on what needs to be done, do the right thing, not the popular thing.”

-Mr. Rogers

Evalinda Davila is a first-generation college student from San Antonio. She loves to spend time with her husband, who serves in the military, and two children. She also enjoys reading and watching football.

She is the president of the Student Government Association at San Antonio College. Evalinda is the first Hispanic student to serve as chair of the Student District Council for Alamo Colleges District. Evalinda currently serves as the vice president of the National Student Leadership Society and the vice president of the Texas Junior College Student Government Association for Region 6. Evalinda stays engaged with the community, volunteering with various charity organizations and participating on outside boards throughout the year.

She plans to pursue her bachelor's degree in public administration and go to law school. Evalinda will be the first of her parents' children to graduate with a bachelor's degree and the third in her family to graduate, following her husband and daughter.
