“Life is a journey, not a destination.”

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Breona Jones is a 25-year-old born and raised in San Antonio. Even though she lost her vision at age 16, she refused to let it stop her from accomplishing her goals, earning her GED before beginning a college career at age 19. At her first job, she worked her way up from cashier, and is now a manager, balancing work along with being a full-time student. She is the oldest of six and the first in her family to graduate college.

Breona is graduating with a degree in real estate management and will be continuing her education by pursuing a bachelor's degree in mass communications. With this degree, she plans to invest in real estate and travel the world to help others as a motivational speaker.
