Gabriel Petersen

Nursing

“No one has ever become poor by giving.”

-Anne Frank

Gabriel Petersen (Gabe), has always been set on pursuing a career in health care, telling others confidently from an early age he would ultimately work in a hospital helping others. He is from Utah and started his collegiate journey in January of 2013 at the University of Utah. There Gabe received a bachelor's degree in French while simultaneously studying in a pre-medical program. After gaining work experience at Intermountain hospital in Murray, Utah, in the Wound Care Clinic, he began attending nursing school at San Antonio College.

Gabe loves to participate in outdoor activities such as snowboarding, rock climbing, backpacking, and camping. He also has a love for music, especially playing the piano. He graduates with an associate degree in nursing from SAC in May 2020. After graduation, Gabe plans to continue his education by earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing.
