Jameson Reid

Visual Arts

“You can fail at something you don’t want, so you might as well take a chance at doing what you love.”

-Jim Carrey

Jameson was born in a small town in southern Indiana and moved to San Antonio in his early childhood. Shortly after he began attending SAC in 2017, he rediscovered his love for art and changed his degree plan. In his time at SAC, Jameson has had several of his artworks featured in the annual juried exhibition of student artworks, was an intern at the McNay Art Museum and a speaker for the 2019 Spring Symposium. Jameson has been received an Excellence in Writing Award, first place in the 2019 College Art Student Division for the Assistance League’s annual student exhibition, and the Robert and Laura Fainter Endowed Scholarship, along with having his work featured in other juried exhibitions in San Antonio. Jameson is proud of his time at San Antonio College and hopes to bring forward his success as he transfers to finish his Bachelor’s Degree in Fine Art.
