“The moment you give up, is the moment you let someone else win.” -Kobe Bryant

Rudy Rubio is blessed with parents, both college graduates, who pushed him and his sister to achieve their utmost academic potential. His parents enrolled them in private Catholic institutions through high school in San Antonio, Texas. He has witnessed tremendous economic growth in the city and surrounding areas throughout his life.

Rudy graduated from Central Catholic High School in 2004, and his friendships built from freshman year are still secure to this day. His participation in the Mighty Button Marching/Concert Band at Central Catholic inspired his creativity and embedded in him a musical foundation.

After high school, he enrolled at San Antonio College. He eventually transferred to The University of Texas at San Antonio, where he joined the U.S. Air Force ROTC Corps of Cadets for two years and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology.

He has since held positions as a bartender in restaurants and special events; a physical education instructor, athletic director and basketball coach of a local charter middle and high school; a basketball official for public middle and high school South Texas teams; and a public announcer for Our Lady of the Lake University athletic teams.

As he ventures through life, he continues to embrace all professional opportunities to grow in skill and knowledge. He continues to work hard and encourage collaborating with those maximizing their potential in entertainment, sports, and the music business.
