Living Our Values

In addition to being a sharp, self-motivated, and person of high integrity, Joshua is simply a individual who wants to learn as much as possible and grow personally and professionally. He has never said no to a project, whether within his job description or work area or not. And, if there is a question to which he does not know the answer, he is diligent about finding out that answer.

ACCOUNTABILITY

Joshua Scott

Living Our Values

While Gabriela has taken on more responsibility and work on top of her already-existing duties, she is constantly focused on ensuring we do "the right thing" when it comes to general issues but also regarding District and SPC Policies and Procedures...In part because of Gabriela's effort and focus, our Division continues to build a culture of trust and respect.

INTEGRITY

Gabriela Perez

Living Our Values

Ruben Guerrero, has been willing repeatedly to go out of [his] way, both in terms of scheduling and locality, to provide an exemplary level of service to our students...Ruben was meeting one of these high risk students at SWC rather than at his office at MLK. When asked about this, his reply was not atypical:

"I believe in Love. And embracing Student Service by meeting students where they are"

COMMUNITY

Ruben Guerrero

Living Our Values

As a faculty member, my transition to the Canvas learning management system has been far more challenging ...the encounters with Mary Parke either face-to-face or through multiple email exchanges has gone beyond normal expectations to help not only me but other faculty to listen, research, explain, demonstrate, etc. the Canvas features which allowed us to continue forward with our online classes.

COMMUNICATION

Mary Parke

Living Our Values

Mr. Fransman provides a learning environment utilizing numerous Canvas tools that bring alive the online classroom. Students are provided with numerous engaging activities that allow for learning, investigating, teaming up, and sharing. The online class environment being provided by Mr. Fransman is truly a creative Demonstration...
